Cardmembership Information

Mandatory Disclosures

The following are important disclosures on Due Date, Delinquency Fee, Annual Fee, Billings Dispute Resolution and Grievance Redressal Escalation on your American Express Corporate Card.

Due date and charges:

All charges are due immediately upon receipt of monthly Statement of Account, payable by the due date given on the statement. In the event of non-receipt of monthly statement, the Cardmember is required to make full payment of the Charges within 21 days of incurring the Charge on basis of the Cardmember's copy of the Record of Charges (ROC), or earlier, if requested by American Express.

Indicative Example: For a monthly statement dated January 13, 2013, the total amount payable by the due date is Rs. 12,000. Then the Cardmember is required to pay the full amount of Rs. 12,000 on or before the Payment Due Date.

Failure to make the payment in full, as indicated above, will attract a delinquency charge as described below.

Missing Payments may affect your Credit Rating:

Please note that in accordance with Reserve Bank of India (RBI) guidelines, we are required to regularly report your Card account status and balance to Credit Information Companies authorised by RBI. Hence, making payments by the date specified on your monthly billing statement will keep your account in good standing. Payments made after that date may negatively impact your credit information with the Credit Information Companies.

Delinquency Fee:

A Delinquency Fee is levied if American Express does not receive full payment of the Amount Due (as shown on the monthly statement) by the Due Date. The Delinquency Fee will be levied at the rate of 3.5% on the unpaid balance (with a minimum monthly Delinquency Fee being 100), in the next monthly billing statement until the payment is received in full.

Sample Illustration - A Cardmember has a total amount due of Rs. 12,000 payable by Due Date. If the Cardmember does not pay this full amount by the Due Date, the Delinquency Fee that will appear in the next month's Statement of account will be: $3.5\% \times 12,000 = \text{Rs. } 420$. Thus, the Cardmember would be charged Rs. 420, which is the Delinquency Fee payable. If the Cardmember does partial payment by the Due Date, that will be adjusted with the total outstanding on which the Delinquency Fee will be levied and Delinquency Fee that will appear in the next month's Bill Statement will be calculated as: Total Outstanding Rs. 12,000, payment made Rs. 2,000 by due date, Delinquency Fee = $3.5\% \times (\text{Rs. } 12,000 - \text{Rs. } 2,000) = 3.5\% \times \text{Rs. } 10,000 = \text{Rs. } 350$

Please note that the Delinquency Fee stated in the example above is exclusive of goods and services tax. Goods and services tax will be billed on the Delinquency Fee charged as per applicable rates.

Annual Fee:

An annual membership fee of Rs. 2,100 and Rs. 3,100 is applicable and charged every year for the American Express Corporate Card and the American Express Gold Corporate Card respectively. For details on standard annual fees please refer to the schedule of charges given in the Most Important Terms and Conditions document available at www.americanexpress.co.in/mitc

Billing Disputes Resolution:

Any clarifications or queries on the monthly statement of the Corporate Card Account must be informed to American Express by calling into the 24-hour Corporate Services Helpline numbers (1800-419-1222 (Toll-free) or +91-124-673-6999) or submitted to American Express in writing (refer to 'Grievances Redressal Escalation') within 60 days of the statement date. American Express would take reasonable steps to assist the Cardmember by providing information in relation to their queries on the Card Account. American Express may charge a reasonable administrative fee for statement reprints or Record of Charge forms. In case of Cardmember billing disputes/transaction disputes, American Express follows its dispute resolution policy whereby a temporary suspension is applied on the disputed transaction and case is investigated for the dispute and the dispute is closed within 30 days. As a result of temporary suspension, the disputed transaction amount is not included in the overdue balance for the purposes of reporting to Central Repository of Information on Large Credits (CRILC) constituted by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), Credit Information Companies (CICs) established under the Credit Information Companies (Regulation) Act, 2005 and to the Information Utilities (IUs) established under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, till such time that dispute is settled.

Payments Made Via Cheque:

Effective 1st November 2021, bill payments made via cheque will not be credited to your Card account until we receive confirmation of the funds from the bank.
